The following people attended:

Jamie Moran, MD, MPH Hospitalist, Shady Grove Hospital, NPA member
Krishnan Narasimhan, MD, Assistant Professor, Howard University, NPA
Fareen Qurashi, AMSA medical student
Omega C. Logan Silva, MD, MACP, Past President, AMWA

Juanita Smith, MD, Hospitalist, Shady Grove Hospital, NPA
Sanjeev Sriram, MD Harvard Fellow, NPA
Pauline Titus-Dillon, MD, MACP, former Sen. Assoc. Dean, Howard University College of Medicine, AMWA member
Aileen Watchko, NPA Staff

We appeared in our white coats receiving attention from a reporter from the Washington Times as we assembled at the entrance to the Dirksen Senate Office Building. The prescriptions and letters from constituents were delivered in folders with information about the NPA with appropriate comments to staff to please support President Obama's health reform plan and the public health option to the following Senators:

Lamar Alexander, TN
Evan Bayh, IN
Robert Bennett, UT
Christopher Bond, MO
Richard Burr, NC
Roland Burris, IL
Maria Cantwell, WA
Robert Casey, PA
Susan Collins, ME
Kay Hagan, NC
John Kerry, MA
Patrick Leahy, VT
Carl Levin, MI
Blanche Lincoln, AR
Edward Kennedy, MA
Mel Martinez, FL
John McCain, AR
Jeff Merkley, OR
Patty Murray, WA
Mark Pryor, AR
Bernard Sanders, VT
Olympia Snowe, ME
James Webb, VA
Mark Warner, VA

Many of the staff knew their Senator's stand on the issue and some revealed that the Senator had not taken a public stance as yet. We commented that we hoped the letters and prescriptions from the senator's constituents would positively influence the final vote of those undecided and coerce those against the plan to support the plan.

Senator Blanche Lincoln who was just leaving as we approached returned to greet us and mentioned that she was late for a committee meeting on the plan which she supports.

Since we did not have time to deliver all the packets, Ms Watchko and the AMSA members delivered the remainder on the House side the next day.
