CME ACCREDITATION

Course Description

This conference will convene leading academic physicians, scientists, students, and prominent policy makers to discuss advances in women's health, new concepts in mentorship, and career advancement for women in medicine.

Course Objectives

At the conclusion of this program, attendees will be able to: (1) Engage in mentoring for professional performance and career development, (2) Define human trafficking, and identify economic, political, social, and cultural factors that contribute to human trafficking, (3) Describe the role of gender in management and prevention of disease, (4) Recognize how to prevent burnout, depression, and suicidality in physicians.

Accreditation Statement

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and Policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint sponsorship of Indiana University School of Medicine and American Medical Women's Association. The Indiana University School of Medicine is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Designation Statement

Indiana University School of Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 16 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits[™]. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Faculty Disclosure Statement

In accordance with the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) Standards for Commercial Support, educational programs sponsored by Indiana University School of Medicine (IUSM) must demonstrate balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor. All faculty, authors, editors, and planning committee members participating in an IUSM-sponsored activity are required to disclose any relevant financial interest or other relationship with the manufacturer(s) of any commercial product(s) and/or provider(s) of commercial services that are discussed in an educational activity.

Note: While it offers CME credits, this activity is not intended to provide extensive training or certification in the field.

CME Certificate and Certificate of Attendance will be e-mailed after the program. Please allow 4-6 weeks for certificate processing. Speaker and Program Evaluations will be distributed through email. Please complete the evaluation as soon as possible after the program.
