

HUMAN TRAFFICKING: A CALL TO ACTION FOR HEALTH CARE PROFESSIONALS

January 19th, 2018

2 p.m. - 4 p.m.

Richardson-Lewis Building, 872 W. Orange Ave., Tallahassee, FL

This program will focus on the knowledge and skills to recognize and treat human trafficking survivors in a health care setting, with a special emphasis on public health. CEs are approved for Nursing, Mental Health Counseling, Clinical Social Work, Marriage and Family Therapy, Occupational Therapy, Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology, Dietetics/Nutrition, Physical Therapy, and Dental.

Presenters: Suzanne Harrison, MD, Florida State University College of Medicine, Robin Hassler Thompson, JD, MA, STAC, Graciela Marquina, MSW, STAC

Costs: Free for training alone. For credit for 2 hrs (CE: $25); CE scholarships available; contact STAC.

Sponsor: The Survive and Thrive Advocacy Center (STAC) in affiliation with the Big Bend Coalition Against Human Trafficking

Contact STAC: STAC@surviveandthriveadvocacy & 850-597-2080.

For more information about STAC, visit surviveandthriveadvocacy.org

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF MEDICINE

STAC is an equal opportunity provider and employer.

This project was supported by Award No. VF010 awarded by the Office for Victims of Crime, Office of Justice Programs. Sponsored by STAC and the State of Florida.