

BROWN
School of Public Health

Center for Alcohol
&
Addiction Studies

August 20, 2018

Dear Colleague:

The Center for Alcohol and Addiction Studies at Brown University is recruiting for fellows in two associated fellowship training programs. One is funded by NIAAA in alcohol abuse and addictions. One is funded by NIDA in substance abuse. The training programs provide postdoctoral research training for behavioral, medical, social scientists and health care professionals who wish to conduct high quality research in the early intervention and treatment of alcohol and other drug problems.

NIAAA and NIDA supported stipends range from $48,432 to $59,736 per year. Center training faculty are from specialty areas of psychology, anthropology, sociology, psychiatry, public health, social work, and internal medicine. MD., Ph.D., or Psy.D. in behavioral or social science required. Applications are due December 21, 2018. Reviews will continue until the positions are filled. Starting dates vary from July 1 to September 1, 2019. Brown University is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer and actively solicits applications from women and minorities.

For further information/application go to <http://www.caas.brown.edu/Content/training/>

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Suzanne M. Colby".

Suzanne M. Colby, Ph.D.
Training Program Director