ACP Members – sign up for free AMWA affiliate membership!

Overview

The American College of Physicians (ACP) is an affiliate member organization of the American Medical Women's Association (AMWA), so all ACP members can receive an AMWA affiliate membership at no extra cost. As an AMWA affiliate member, you enjoy the benefits of AMWA membership – except voting, leadership, special opportunities, and membership in the Medical Women's International Association. For only $60, physicians can upgrade to full membership. Residents and fellows automatically get full membership.
